- d. More degree programme or Subjects can be offered under this ordinance on the recommendations of the Academic Council.

The 4-YEAR B.Sc program will be offered in line with the National Education Policy, 2020. Basic principles guiding the four-year undergraduate programs

1. PROGRAM DESIGN

- a. As proposed in the National Education Policy, 2020 (NEP) the B.Sc programme in the University is designed as a 4-year multidisciplinary bachelor's programme that "shall be the preferred option since it allows the opportunity to experience the full range of holistic and multidisciplinary education in addition to a focus on the chosen major and minors as per the choices of the student" (para 11.9 of NEP 2020).
- b. Further, as recommended in the policy the programme design will factor "Imaginative and flexible curricular structures that will enable creative combinations of disciplines for study, and would offer multiple entry and exit points, thus, removing currently prevalent rigid boundaries and creating new possibilities for life-long learning" (para 11.5 of NEP 2020). Thus the programme will allow for flexibility and provide multiple exit and entry options with 1-year certificate, 2-year diploma, 3-year degree and a 4-year degree with honors. The basic programme for which all students must apply is the 4 years honors programme. Exits are provided as an exception rather than a standard practice.
- c. The curriculum will be flexible to allow for exit after 1/2/3/4 years resulting in a certificate, diploma and a degree or degree with honours.

2. ELEMENTS OF THE CURRICULUM

The 4-year program curriculum is divided into five major components.

Component	Details
Common Curriculum	The Common Curriculum will introduce students to ways and modes of thought through the study of the themes included that emphasize and build critical and analytical abilities, reading and writing, sensibilities for dialogue, reflection and cooperative learning.
Disciplinary	The courses in a major are divided into required courses and electives. Required courses will include introductory, intermediate, and advanced courses specific to the discipline. Elective courses will include courses from the disciplinary major or related disciplines that enhance the understanding of the student
Interdisciplinary Track	Students may choose an interdisciplinary track that will prepare them to enter the workforce with a range of perspectives, skills and competencies along with practical internships. Illustratively these occupational tracks could be education, media and journalism, arts and design, sports and fitness, climate science, community health etc.
Internship or Research Thesis	Students interested primarily in the higher education pathway would be expected to do a semester-long independent research project, resulting in a thesis submission in the four-year programme.

Flexible Credits - In keeping with the spirit of the National Education Policy, all students will have a number of courses that they can use to craft their own educational experience. These may be of three types. First, for students who need additional preparation, for example in basic mathematics or language skills, preparatory supporting courses will be offered in the first two years. These students may also take other supporting courses to explore broadly by registering for courses outside of their subject major. Students who do not have to undertake preparatory courses may take courses outside their subject major.

Range of Total Marks	Letter Grade	Grade Points
95 to 100	O (Outstanding)	10
85 to 94	A+ (Excellent)	9
75 to 84	A (Very Good)	8
65 to 74	B+ (Good)	7
55 to 64	B (Above Average)	6
45 to 54	C (Average)	5
40 to 44	P (Pass)	4
00 to 39	F (Fail)	0
Incomplete	Ab (Absent)	0

Non-Grading / Audit	S / U	Satisfactory / Unsatisfactory
Conversion formula: Percentage of Marks = (CGPA) X 9.5

"F" denotes Failure due to insufficient marks in the course

"Ab" Failure due to non-appearance in examination

"S" A student must get a S (Satisfactory) to pass a course.

The letter grade "_" with 'i' in the superscript indicate the number of attempts to clear the course.

Calculation of Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA)

Adherence to the UGC / BCI recommendation for calculation of SGPA and CGPA.

Grade Letter and Grade Points for each paper are allocated after evaluating 100% of all course components (All Papers of Theory and Practical including Co and Extra-curricular activities).

The SGPA is the ratio of sum of the product (credit point) of the number of credits with the grade points scored by a student in all the courses taken by a student and the sum of the number of credits of all the courses undertaken by a student.

The SGPA is computed using the following formula i.e.

$$SGPA (S_i) = \sum (C_i \times G_i) / \sum C_i$$

Where C_i is the number of credits of the i^{th} course and G_i is the grade point scored by the student in the i^{th} course.

The CGPA is also calculated in the same manner considering all the courses undertaken by a student over all the semesters of a program i.e.

$$CGPA = \sum (C_i \times S_i) / \sum C_i$$

Where S_i is the SGPA of the i^{th} semester and C_i is the total number of credits in that semester.

The SGPA and CGPA shall be rounded off to 2 decimal places and reported in the transcripts.

Illustration of SGPA and CGPA. The CGPA grade shall be awarded only after successfully passing all the courses required for the award of degree.

The successful candidates as per CGPA higher than or equal to the minimum CGPA specified in the Syllabi and Scheme of Teaching and Examination for the award of the degree, shall be awarded the degree and shall be placed in Class as below:

- CGPA from 4.00 – 4.99 shall be placed in the Pass Class.
- CGPA from 5.00 – 6.49 shall be placed in the Second Class.
- CGPA from 6.50 – 8.49 shall be placed in the First Class.
- CGPA from 8.50 and above shall be placed in the Exemplary Performance.

7. General

- The admission to all kinds & mode of BA.LL.B.(Hons/Plain), B.B.A. LL. B (Hons/Plain), B.Com. LL. B (Hons/Plain) and B.Sc. LLB (Hons/Plain) program shall be governed in accordance and provisions of the Rules/ Directives of UGC / BCI relevant regulatory body as applicable or amended from time to time.
- The relaxation in eligibility conditions, age, and reservation etc. shall be in accordance with the rules of UGC / BCI / Authority of Govt. of India / State Government as applicable or amended from time to time.
- In matters not covered under this ordinance, general rules of the university shall be applicable, otherwise, the state government / UGC / Statutory body directions shall be applicable.
- In matters of admission, attendance, and examination and in all other matters not provided in this ordinance, the courses shall be governed by the provisions of the relevant ordinances of the same in the university so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance.
- If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of these regulations, the Vice- Chancellor may by order make such provisions not inconsistent with the Act, Statutes, Ordinances or other Regulations, as appears to be necessary or expedient to remove the difficulty.
- If BCI or other regulatory body notifies any changes in future in its regulations in this regard, the same will be incorporated in the existing ordinance with the approval of Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the Academic Council.
